Eligibility

- i) All are welcome to dress up and participate. Contestants 13 or under must have their parent's or guardian's permission to enroll and must be accompanied by a legal guardian or relative of age at the show.
- ii) Contestants can only submit one entry.
- iii) The competition will be hosted at the Hilton Anaheim hotel on Saturday August 8th, 2020. Contestants will get to strut their stuff starting at approximately 4:30pm Saturday August 8th, 2020 in the main panel room. Contestants must register ahead of time by submitting this completed form in person to the Registration table at POWER-CON between 10:00am and 3:00pm on Saturday August 8th, 2020. Judging will be conducted, and winners announced after the judging session. All contestants must report to the master of ceremonies outside of the main panel room by 3:30pm for check-in.
- iv) Contestant costumes must be based on or inspired by the Masters of the Universe and Princess of Power brands.
- v) Individuals that have contributed to the current Masters of the Universe and Princess of Power brands in any way (such as, but not limited to, the creation of characters, comics, cartoons, scripts, figures or statues, or intellectual property) are not eligible to participate. In addition, current convention Staff members, Judges, and Coordinators are not eligible to participate in the current competition.

Guidelines

- i) Body coverage: The POWER-CON is a family friendly convention and also has to adhere to the rules and regulations set forth by the Hilton Anaheim hotel and the city of Anaheim and Orange county. All costumes need to be tasteful and must cover at least a bikini bottom for males and full bikini for females. The use of latex paint, body paint, pasties, etc. are not considered adequate body coverage without additional body coverage worn over it. Thongs are not allowed unless covered by shorts or skirts.
- ii) Costume Credit: All costumes must be made by the contestant or credited to the appropriate creator(s).
- iii) Contestants can only enter once and not double up with other groups or individuals.
- iv) POWER-CON reserves the right to refuse the entry of any prop or weapon it decides is unfit for the convention. All props or weapons must support the overall look of a costume or character. Wearing a prop or weapon for its own sake is not allowed. Misuse of a prop or weapon will result in immediate removal of the user from the convention. Any use of an item in an aggressive or threatening manner, regardless of intent, or any other activity thought to be unsafe in the view of POWER-CON is strictly forbidden and will result in immediate removal of the user from the convention.
- v) The use of metals, hard woods, and industrial plastics are not encouraged as these props or weapons can contain sharp or pointed edges and/or can result in an item that potentially too heavy. Any prop or weapon that may result in an injury to any individual due to sticking, cutting, dropping, pointing or touching the weapon in any fashion what so ever may be refused for entry by POWER-CON.
- vi) Sharp edges on any prop or weapon are not permitted, and must be smoothed, filed, padded, or otherwise protected against any potential contact.
- vii) Soft woods such as balsa, fir or layered cardboard are preferred choices for prop or weapon construction materials as they are neither heavy nor hard.

- viii) The use of varnish, shellac, or any other coating to make a soft weapon have a hard exterior or sharp edge may result in a refusal of entry if the weapon is deemed unsafe due to any such treatment of its exterior. The definition of "hard" in this case is a hardness that exceeds that such as balsa, fir or layered cardboard.
- ix) Materials that can shatter, such as glass or brittle plastics, are not permitted.
- x) Staves are acceptable as long as they are carried as a walking stick with one point on the ground. They may not be worn over the shoulder.
- xi) Any deadly weapon, including a firearm that has the firing pin removed or barrel filled to make it unusable, is not allowed.
- xii) Replica and futuristic firearms are allowed only if such weapon cannot be misconstrued to be a real firearm. A safety cap made of bright colored plastic (orange, red, yellow) may be placed over the end of the barrel and secured against removal. This includes any weapon that may be "fired" such as a homemade replica meant to duplicate a costume-related weapon that you are portraying. Water guns are allowed as a prop as long as it is not filled with water or any other fluid.
- xiii) Bows or other manual projectile replicas are allowed only if they are rendered incapable of firing a projectile. Airsoft weapons in any configuration are not allowed as props or weapons.
- xiv) Any weapon purchased in any exhibitor/retailer/vendor room at the convention must be wrapped before leaving the retailer's table and then immediately taken to a room or car. Failure to do so may result in immediate removal of the user from the convention.
- xv) Personal firearms, as permitted by the State of California for individuals with a valid and current license for a concealed handgun, are not allowed into any convention space regardless of reason. Any individual caught with such weapon in a convention space will face removal of the user from the convention and/or being reported to local authorities.
- xvi) Any attendee under the age of 18 are not allowed to carry steel or hard wood weapons. Failure to observe this rule will result in removal of the attendee and his/her parents or guardians from the convention and/or being reported to local authorities.
